- * Protection for America's new chemical and dye stuffs industry.
- * Federal aid in building of good roads.

By L. C. MARTIN
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Dec. 2.—President Wilson today sent to congress a message urging an extensive program of reconstruction legislation. His communication was devoted entirely to the great program of developing the nation.

Legislation was recommended to curb bolshevism in America, to reduce living costs, to remove grievances of labor and causes of industrial trouble, to aid farmers to produce bigger crops, to simplify the system of taxation, and government expenditures by the budget system, and to give aid to the soldiers and sailors who have left the service.

Though the president several times referred to the peace treaty and the league of nations, he did not discuss the treaty situation. He will do so in a later message, according to reliable information today.

He also will deal later with the railroad question, he informed the legislators.

Much of the message was devoted to a discussion of the labor problem. To solve it congress must now help in the difficult task of finding a method that will bring about a genuine democracy.

"Reorganization of industries, based upon full recognition of the right of those who work in whatever rank, to participate in some organic way, in every decision which directly affects their welfare," was urged.

No better means of doing this can be found, the president declared, than by applying in legislation the principles set up in the labor section of the league of nations covenant.

The president suggested the establishment of a tribunal before which disputes between capital and labor can be taken for settlement. To go back to the old standard of labor and wages is impossible, urging that the long antagonism between capital and labor must be ended before real world stability can be accomplished. In this the United States is bid by the world's unrest to "put our own house in order" and be the first to lay the foundation stone of industrial peace. The president warned against anti-strike legislation.

The right of the individual to strike is inviolate, he declared, "and ought not to be interfered with by any process of the government," but he added that the government has the predominant right to protect the people against the challenging aggression of any single class. Capital too, he declared, has a right to adequate returns, and the government, he warned, must never "play capital and labor against each other."

A summary of the subjects in his message are as follows:

Unrest

Blame for the unrest in the country was placed partly upon the senate for failure to ratify the peace treaty. One cause of the unrest, the president asserted, is "the failure on the part of the government to speedily arrive at just and permanent peace, permitting return to normal conditions."

While congress should deal with the activities of the reds and agitators, the president advised against action either impatient or drastic, for purging that cause of unrest, which would remove it, outlining it thus:

"The causes of unrest while various and complicated, are superficial rather than depressive, and are due to a failure on the part of the senate to arrive speedily at a just and permanent peace, from the transference of radical theories from seething European centers, from heartless profiteering, and the lasting machinations of malevolent agitators."

Strong laws against anarchists should be enacted at once he urged.

The High Cost of Living

The president appealed again for enactment of the program he proposed at the special session to lower living costs and not only the one measure which has become law. This program includes the extension of Lever food act, closer legislation for the distribution of food, and cold storage licenses of all corporations dealing with interstate commerce.

Budget System.

President Wilson offered this recommendation with the hope that a budget system will be established, which will put the preparation of appropriation estimates under the direction of the president, eliminating the great duplication in congress by reason of a number of committees dealing with the appropriations, and provide for an audit system to determine whether the money has been spent economically.

Taxes and Tariffs

Immediate necessary legislation simplifying of income and profit taxes the president said. He warned that if income and profit tax rates are lifted they may prove destructive to business.

He also warned against building of a tariff wall too high for European manufacturers. Unless Europe can sell goods here, it can't pay bills to business men of the United States, he declared.

"If we want to sell we must prepare to buy," he said, declaring against the policy of isolation and prohibitive tariff legislation. The protection of the chemical and dye industry of this country against Germany's efforts to regain the market, as however necessary, the president said.

Soldiers Aid

President Wilson repeated his request for legislation to provide farms for soldiers, also recommended again legislation making available the cut-over lands and unused lands in the west.

Farm and Food Protection

Encourage the farmers, the president urged, and make rural life more attractive as a means of stimulating food production. He included a recommendation for developing foreign resources, and a continuation of the building of good roads.

Many a downtrodden drinking man has muttered after gulping down what is now surreptitiously sold as whiskey: "That stuff must have been made out of gasoline." As a matter of fact some of the more enterprising moonshiners have been using the stuff that makes autos and airplanes

Slaughter of Carranza Soldiers Believed on Border

SAM FREED.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 2.—A sensational story of the slaughter of 674 Carranza soldiers of the Rancho Estero garrison by 1,000 Villistas, is credited along the border despite official denial.

Vice Consul Sandoval of the Mexican consulate, after talking with the Juarez telegraph office today, emphatically expressed his disbelief in the report of the massacre.

In addition to Dr. L. G. Gomez, of Los Angeles, another Chihuahua citizen who arrived here, J. B. Pierz, said he witnessed in Santa Rosalia the heart-rending scenes of the mourners on the part of the wives and relatives of the murdered Carranza soldiers.

Redfield Resigns as Sec'y. of Commerce

Washington, Dec. 2.—Joshua William Alexander, congressman from Missouri, has been selected by President Wilson as secretary of commerce succeeding Wm. C. Redfield, resigned. It was announced today.

His nomination will be forwarded to the senate tomorrow.

Primary Conventions Held in South Dakota

The Republican Convention Endorsed the League Covenant Without Amendments But With Reservations

Pierre, S. D., Dec. 2.—The South Dakota republican state convention this afternoon endorsed the league of nations covenant "without amendments but with reservations."

This was included in the platform assailing democratic extravagance and praising republican economy.

The democratic convention adjourned until this afternoon after an address by Rep. Canby. Indications were that a nominee in this convention would not be decided upon until late this afternoon or evening.

The Non-Partisan Leaguers met at the capital and elected temporary officers. Chairman Jerkin of Faulk county, suggested they adjourn to the Larke hotel because of the lack of room. Governor Norbar stepped up to him and said: "My name is Nobar. I did not know you wanted a room, or the best in the state house would have been provided. No application was made for one. You may still have my reception room." The leaguers adjourned to the hotel.

The republican convention platform is accepted by the South Dakotans as an indication of the national republican mind.

The platform approved a Non-Partisan tariff commission; declared against autocracy; assailed the miners strike as "the unreasonable demand of coal operators and the unreasonable demand of I. W. W. agitators," and urged Americanism of new immigrants and the proper education of foreigners arriving here with government assistance in defraying expenses.

It declared the English language as the vehicle of instruction in public schools; generous compensation for returned service men; return of railroads to private ownership; endorsed suffrage, and the Kenyon bills providing for licensing of packers, and recommended the enacting of laws to encourage home building for people of the town and city, the same as farmers have been encouraged through credit laws to own their farms.

INDUSTRIAL LIFE BEING STILLED BY COAL SHORTAGE

War Time Restrictions on Coal Consumers Being Put Into Effect Today

Body of Woman Missing 3 Years Found in Trunk

In the Basement of Her Home—Former Lover Apprehended in Chicago, Will Testify

Lawton, Mich., Dec. 2.—James Virgo, former sweetheart of Maude F. Tabor, found in a trunk in the basement of the Tabor home, was brought here today to tell the coroner's jury his relations with the dead woman. Virgo was apprehended in Chicago. He was formerly an undertaker and embalmer.

When taken into custody he admitted he was a man of many loves, having been married five times. He said he had charge of the business affairs of Sarah Tabor, mother, and Walter Tabor, brother of the dead woman, who are being sought in connection with the case. It is believed they are traveling in California.

Mrs. Florence Critchlow, sister of Maude, refused to answer any questions when summoned before the coroner's jury. She was held in jail as a witness. Practically all acquaintances of the Tabor family agree that Maude disappeared in the summer of 1915, but it was disputed by Dr. Young, who said Maude called at his office early in 1916. The body had evidently been in the trunk three years. It was in a good state of preservation, however, and all indications were that it had been embalmed. Two large sacks of salt were jammed into the trunk which also aided in preserving it. Dr. Young's examination of the body proved the woman was about to become a mother at the very hour when she met her death.

The other three members of the Tabor family have lived at the Tabor homestead off and on since Maude's disappearance.

Eight Thousand Plants in Chicago Alone Will Receive no More Coal--300,000 Thrown Out of Employment

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 2.—The industrial life of the middle west slowly but surely was being stilled today by the coal shortage.

Renewal of the war time restriction on coal consumers was to be placed into effect. No coal will be distributed to any but industries which are necessary to the well being of the people. Theaters, churches, schools, clubs and other meeting places will be closed in practically all of the middle west by the end of the week, according to predictions by those in close touch with the situation. They have already been shut down in many places. About eight thousand plants in Chicago alone will not be allowed to receive any more coal, and when their present supply is exhausted they will have to shut down. This will effect about 300,000 wage earners, whose weekly wages are estimated at $6,000,000. Light and motor power will be shut down by the central power plants to all non-essential industries, the regional coal committee stated.

Further curtailment of railroad service has been left in the hands of various regional directors.

Few Miners Return to Work

Washington, Dec. 2.—Fuel Administrator Garfield was expected to confer late today or tomorrow with Attorney General Palmer. Appointment of several fuel administrators to assist Garfield may result.

Reports from several fields show few of the miners accepted the 14 per cent wage raise and returned to work.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 2.—The offer of a 14 per cent wage increase posted at the entrance of the mines caused the miners to walk out, and did not induce any strikers to return to work, according to a statement by Wm. O. Green, secretary treasurer of the United Mine Workers here today.

"Our report shows that no miners have returned to work and those in the central Pennsylvania, the Maryland and the West Virginia districts who were not striking have gone out since the posting of the 14 per cent offer," Green stated.

"There were about 28,000 men in these districts who did not respond to the strike call but left their work yesterday."

WOMAN'S REALM

"WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES" MAKES HIT

Billed as Original Farce by Louis Hathaway and Given Under His Personal Direction

FILLS NEW PARK THEATRE

Replete With Bright Lines and Action—Play Revolves Around Jones, a Salesman

"What Happened to Jones" billed as an original farce by Louis Hathaway and given under his personal direction, for the benefit of the Brainerd Fire Department, drew an audience which filled main floor and most of the balcony of the new Park theatre and scored a great success.

In three acts replete with bright lines and action, the play revolves about Jones, who travels for a hymn book house. The part was well taken by Harry Butler, who showed a natural aptitude for getting people out of trouble and diplomatically saving himself.

Fritz Koop was the ponderous professor of anatomy who was inveigled into seeing a prize fight. He had his part down pat and needed no coaching.

City Attorney H. D. Fullerton appeared as Anthony Goodly, the bishop of Ballarat. He had the clerical presence and made a good "D.D." Milton Pommarine was Richard Heatherly who was of most engaging personality.

Sidney Harmon as Thomas Holder, policeman, looked and acted the part of "one of the finest."

M. Lind was the wild Indian who escaped from the sanatorium and was later taken in tow by Henry Fuller, the superintendent, impersonated by Archie Falconer.

And the old maid character, which caused such a ruction in Brainerd? She was well impersonated by Hathaway himself. Association with soldier theatricals on the west front had given him an insight in makeup, and in appearance and stage work he made of the character a no inconsiderable part of the comedy end.

Mrs. Paul G. Clarkson was Mrs. Goodly, Ebenezer's wife, who showed such wifely solicitude by anxiously trying to put her husband to bed under a head canopy of cracked ice as recommended by the pseudo bishop, Jones.

Miss Norma Brady was charming as Cissy, Ebenezer's ward, and was particularly good in scenes with Jones.

Miss Delilah Koop, Ebenezer's daughter, was well played and especially in the love spats with Heatherly.

Miss Dorothy Carmichael was a lovable, dainty Miss Minerva, Ebenezer's youngest daughter.

And so was Miss Ellingboe who officiated as the Swedish maid and was seeing things and receiving retainers for forgetting what she saw.

Stage decorations, all home material, was especially good. In addition to furniture from Patek's, there was also furniture and furnishings from D. M. Clark & Co.

The specialty between second and third act was a violin solo by young Mauritz Nelson, accompanied by his sister, Miss Gunhild Nelson. Both drew heavy applause.

The Park theatre orchestra gave its finest selections, a novelty being the xylophone solo by the trap drummer, O. Risberg, with orchestral accompaniment.

"What Happened to Jones" may be repeated in Crosby or Ironton, Little Falls and Staples.

The firemen realized a neat sum from the benefit and are grateful to all who took part in the play, to all who assisted and to the public which attended.

Squaring It.

Some people do odd things for the purpose of getting even.

REVIEW OF CONCERT

Scheurer Trio Pleases Appreciative Audience in Lecture Course

On the theory that tardy appreciation is better than none, this article is offered.

There was such general satisfaction expressed after the concert of the University Extension Course, under the management of Rev. E. G. Carlson, Thanksgiving night, that some of the audience even went so far as to declare that this was the best entertainment they had ever attended. But, as comparisons are always odious, suffice it to say that every number on the program was enjoyable, and some were distinctive.

The famous violinist, Carl Scheurer, who gave up his position as concertmaster of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra to become the head of the violin school of the University was, of course, the leading attraction. That he "delivered the goods" was shown by the fact that the first time he dropped his bow, the audience burst into applause. As this was quite unusual in Brainerd (although not unprecedented) some thought that it was a decided "faux pas" on the part of the audience. But Mr. Scheurer considered it a spontaneous expression of appreciation. When asked if he was surprised, he replied: "No, because I have always heard of your wonderful Musical club here that has done so much to educate the public in musical appreciation, that all the artists like to come here. I have always wanted to come myself—and now I want to come again."

Mr. Scheurer is booked to come again on the last number of this course, and no music lover should fail to hear him, for he is not only an artist himself, but he employs an artist for his accompanist. Brainerd boasts some pretty fine local accompanists and our audiences are not accustomed to bunglers in this capacity, but they have perhaps never heard work that came quite as near perfection as that done by Miss Alexander. Her solo work was excellent also, but as an accompanist she was par excellence.

Miss Thompson who substituted for Miss Grace Chadburn, deserved much better treatment than she received from the audience. She had a very pleasing voice and a delightful personality, and it was her misfortune—not her fault—that she was a substitute. An audience always regards substitutes, however satisfactory, and the sensitive artist always feels that resentment and is, consequently, unable to do her best work. If an audience would only realize that to get the best it must give freely of its sympathy and appreciation, the sum total of pleasure in this world would be considerably augmented.

The reader, Miss Fisher, who spent a year in France entertaining our soldier boys, was happy both in her choice of selections and in their interpretation. Her reading of the story of the little crippled orphan boy of six summers who "adopted" a mother was particularly well done. Miss Fisher is the niece of Mr. Laidlaw of St. Paul, who is known to many Brainerd people because of his position as secretary of the N. P. B. A.

If the remaining numbers of this so-called "lecture course" are as excellent as this one, they will be well worth the nominal charge of a dollar and a half for the four. One of these will be an impersonator who is said to be a real artist in mimicry. Another will be a "legitimate" reader, to borrow from the nomenclature of the stage, and the other two will be concerts.

MY MINNESOTA

The following poem was read at the Brainerd Women's Community Council by Mrs. L. L. Burnett:

Ho, Westwind off the prairie,
Ho, Northwind off the pine;
Ho, myriad azure lakes, hill-clad,
Like cups of living wine;
Ho, mighty river, rolling,
Ho, fallow field and fen;
Through your thousand voices nature
To fire the hearts of men.

Ho, fragrance of the wheat fields;
Ho, garnered hoards of flax;
Ho, whirling mill-wheel neath the falls;
Ho, woodman's ringing axe.
Man blends his voice with nature's
And the great chorus swells.
He adds the notes of home and love
To the tale the forest tells.

Oh young blood of the nation;
Oh hope in a world of need;
The traditions of the fathers
Still be our vital seed.
Thy newer daughters of the West,
Columbia, mother mine,
Still hold to the simple virtues
Of field and stream and pine.

—ALICE AMES WINTER.

DRESSMAKER GIVES ADVICE

"I underwent a surgical operation for gall stones 5 years ago, was in the hospital 4 weeks. For 1 year I felt better, but then my old symptoms and pains returned, and I have suffered ever since. Four weeks ago on the advice of a lady I tried May's Wonderful Remedy, and I now feel like a new woman. I have a number of friends who suffer as I did and I am advising all to try this valuable medicine." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. Close Figuring

"Some of my wife's kinfolks are the fingeriest set on earth," admitted Mr. Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge. "Most every winter three or four of my wife's sisters drop in for a nice long visit, bringing a batch of their children to turn loose on us. Then after a while the women hit the grit for home and leave four or eight apiece of their children behind. Of course, we know they're not all our kids. We've got only fourteen. But it ain't until the weather gets warm enough in the spring for us to wash 'em all that we find out for certain which are ours and which were wished on us to feed till the season opens."—Kansas City Star.

Inside Facts

It's what's inside your battery that makes it live long or wear out quickly.

Inferior insulation wears out before the plates do, and re-insulation is necessary.

Threaded Rubber Insulation eliminates the need of re-insulation, makes a battery last much longer under equal conditions, and reduces the liability to any other kind of repairs.

It's the one biggest battery improvement in ten years—demonstrated now by four years of use.

You can't afford not to know about it, for some day you'll need a new battery.

THE COUNTRY'S TROUBLES

The Washington Post says much in few words in the following: "Ninety per cent of the country's troubles are traceable to the doubts and hardships resulting from the ill-advised attempt to plunge the country forever into Europe's quagmire of intrigues and wars. The people have shown as clearly as they could that they oppose the extreme plan proposed by Mr. Wilson, but are not opposed to ratification of the treaty after safeguarding the United States. Take the people's verdict, Mr. President! Take the treaty with the reservations, and let the country go forward!"

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

U. S. Examination for Clerk-Carrier in Local Post Office Service

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that an open competitive examination for the positions of clerk and city carrier for the local post office will be held in Brainerd on Saturday, Dec. 13, 1919.

Clerks in offices of the first and second classes, and carriers in the city delivery service, are divided into six grades, the salaries of which are $1200, $1300, $1400, $1450, $1500, and $1600, per annum, respectively. Clerks and carriers will be promoted successively, after one year's satisfactory service in each grade, to the next higher grade until they reach the sixth grade, $1650 per annum.

Competitors will be examined in the following subjects: Spelling, arithmetic, letter writing, penmanship, reading addresses and copying from plain copy.

Applicants must have reached their eighteenth but not their forty-fifth birthday on the date of the examination. The age limits are waived, however, in the case of persons entitled to preference under the law, i. e., honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines, widows of such, and wives of injured soldiers, sailors and marines who themselves are not qualified for the positions. Male applicants must measure at least 5 feet 4 inches in height and must weigh at least 125 pounds. Female applicants are not required to be of any specific height or weight. Applicants who come within any one of the preferred classes enumerated above will be given preference in the matter of appointment also.

Each applicant will be required to submit to the examiner on the day of the examination, his or her photograph, taken within two years, securely pasted in the place provided on the admission card sent after the application is filed. The examination is open to all citizens of the United States who meet the requirements.

For application blank, Form 1371, address the secretary of the U. S. civil-service board at the local post office. No application will be accepted unless properly executed and filed with the district secretary in time for him to arrange for the examination. The medical certificate attached to the application should not be executed.

REPORT ON RED CROSS DRIVE

By L. B. KINDER, City Chairman

As chairman for Brainerd of the Red Cross drive held throughout the United States from November 3rd to 11th, I report that the memberships secured in this city number approximately 1100. In this drive each membership represents an individual so that today one out of every ten inhabitants of Brainerd is a member of the Red Cross. How this showing compares with that made by other localities I have no means of knowing. I do know, however, the difficulties solicitors for memberships have encountered.

Anyone who has not taken part in the recent campaign can scarcely realize what its promoters have had to contend with. To begin with, the people of Brainerd in one way or another have been solicited to death—with good reason they protest: "It's nothing all the time but money—money—money!" Then again the patriotic appeal was lacking. The war is over and the appeal to join the Red Cross for the benefit of humanity in general lacked the grip of the former appeals to back the Red Cross to take care of American soldiers and sailors at home and abroad. What possibly hurt the present drive most was the refunding of the monthly subscriptions in October. This gave an erroneous impression that the Red Cross had more money than it knew what to do with. To combat this we had only the voices of the four minute men and the persuasions of the individual solicitors. We had no full page newspaper advertisements; neither had we, save at the Foundry, the privilege of having the membership dollar charged on the books and deducted from the next paycheck. In the case of many workmen the lack of ready money lost us memberships. Finally, the machinery that had so capably served in past campaigns had rusted so it could no longer be used.

For the results of the recent drive credit is chiefly due to Mrs. E. J. Quinn. Your chairman being unable to devote as much time to the drive as it needed Mrs. Quinn stepped into the breach and did everything necessary and possible to put the drive across. The women's block worker system, as its chairman wrote, had after putting seven drives across successfully, gone to pieces. Nothing daunted, Mrs. Quinn assisted by Mrs. J. A. Thabes, then as always the backbone of the Crow Wing County Red Cross, organized an entirely new corps of block workers. By a means of a directory and atlas they redistricted Brainerd anew, and they secured ladies to superintend and to solicit. Mrs. Quinn also organized a squad of young ladies who solicited the downtown district. In addition to all this Mrs. Quinn personally took charge of the City Headquarters in the Woodhead Motor Company's store, a task requiring long hours, the handling of practically all the money turned in and a general superintendence over the solicitors. As the one who best knows who did the actual work of this campaign I can not give too much credit to Mrs. Quinn.

As a class the block workers were the people who did the real work of soliciting. I regret that I have not the names of all who solicited. The following are the active heads of the block-workers, as reorganized by Mrs. Quinn and Mrs. Thabes, under the name of the Red Cross Reserves.

Residence District

Mrs. J. Draxler, Mrs. W. J. Kunitz, Mrs. H. Krause, Mrs. Wm. Betts, Mrs. W. E. Rasch, Mrs. J. M. Kelly, Miss Irene English, Mrs. D. M. Clark, Mrs. Smiley, Mrs. Ben Armstrong, Mrs. E. S. Whitlock, Mrs. W. A. Spencer.

Down Town District

Mrs. W. A. Erickson, Mrs. C. G. Nordin, Miss Alice Smith, Mrs. Carmichael, Miss McKinley, Miss Mahlum, Mrs. Fred T. Lincoln, Mrs. Ed. Orth, Mrs. Moerke, Mrs. Wm. Cleary, Mrs. D. E. Whitney, Mrs. Weber, Miss Norma Brady, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. W. H. Crowell, Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mrs. Joseph Golemboske, Mrs. John A. Hoffbauer.

Others who did their bit were these teachers who solicited their respective schools. High school—Miss Mary Tornstrom; Harrison—Mrs. Whitlock; Whittier—Miss Barrett; Lowell school—Miss Sarah Irwin.

The Olympia Candy Kitchen rustled nearly 30 members. The following high school boys and girls also did their bit—Harold Jones, Bruce Hayes, Harry Wolford, Ruth Ellingboe, Hazel Algers, Gertrude McGarry, Irene Quinn. Harold Jones furnished his car for delivering the Red Cross supplies.

The Brainerd industries were covered as follows:

The N. W. Paper Mill—The Red Cross is greatly indebted to S. A. Stanley for his active and effective canvass of the workers here.

Parker and Topping Foundry—James Stevenson, manager of the Insurance Service Agency, Judge Walter F. Wieland and Lawrence O'Toole were the committee that handled the Foundry. Clyde Parker in behalf of Parker & Topping did everything in his power to help.

N. P. Tie Plant—No report as yet from this industry.

N. P. Shops—Upon this advice of labor leaders your chairman first secured permission of Superintendent J. P. Anderson to solicit the shops. This secured a meeting of all the heads of the shop unions was called and the matter discussed. The presidents of the unions appointed men to solicit in each craft. About 200 memberships were taken by shopmen. The Red Cross feels especially indebted to Assistant Superintendent E. J. Cook for taking complete charge of the shop subscriptions. In two former soldiers, Martin Andersen, president of the Railway Clerk's union and C. H. Babcock, president of the Blacksmith union, the Red Cross found two stalwart champions. Their activity in its behalf is highly appreciated.

Last but far from least in its obligations is that which the Red Cross owes John Woodhead for giving them rent free for city headquarters in the Woodhead Motor Company store. In addition he gave the use of his phone, which inconvenient need not a little. The Red Cross, also, is obliged to Mrs. W. H. Crowell for the use of a table.

I have attempted in this report to give credit to whomever credit is due. If I have overlooked any one the omission is quite unintentional and I shall be glad to make amends.

In conclusion have only this to say that in this campaign the Red Cross found few enemies and many friends. That with one inhabitant out of every ten a member the Red Cross can not but continue a strong and effective force for good in this community; and that I am sure that its work during the coming year will demonstrate the necessity of maintaining an active chapter of the Red Cross in times of peace.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All druggists. 75c. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Birth of a Race"

It was an ambitious task the makers of "The Birth of a Race" set for themselves but they succeeded with it, and the result is a truly great photoplay at the New Park theatre tonight and tomorrow.

The aim of the picture is to show the struggle and triumph of democracy throughout the ages, with present conditions as the latest and most vivid phase. The picture is divided into two distinct parts. The first half is historical and dates back to the cradle of the world. The second half is a modern drama of great appeal.

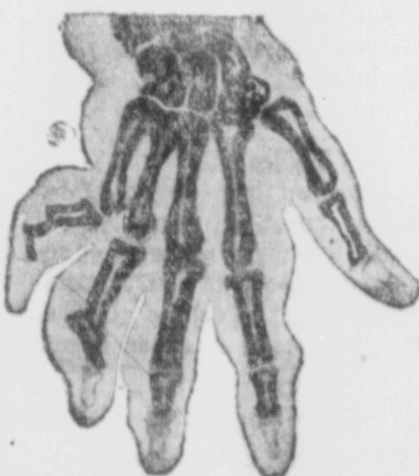

The great spectacular romance "The Birth of a Race," which is to be seen at the New Park Theatre, is one of the most elaborate pictures ever made. It cost over a million dollars to produce, and an army of players were employed to enact the various difficult and important roles. The skill of makeup and characterization shown in presenting the historical personages alone would make the picture notable.

This photoplay carries us back to creation. The wonderful story is understood without difficulty. The film is at once a pleasure and an education. An augmented orchestra accompanies this attraction. Twice daily 7 and 9 p. m.

RULES FOR XMAS PARCELS BEING SENT SOLDIERS

Seven pounds is the limit on Christmas packages for the Yank in Europe, while the doughboy in Siberia or the Orient may receive a box weighing twenty pounds.

NEW TREATMENTS THAT KNOCKS RHEUMATISM

75c Box Free to Any Sufferer. Up in Syracuse, N. Y., a treatment for rheumatism has been found that hundreds of users say is a wonder, reporting cases that seem little short of miraculous. Just a few treatments even in the very worst cases seem to accomplish wonders even after other remedies have failed entirely. It seems to neutralize the uric acid and lime salt deposits in the blood, driving all the poisonous clogging waste from the system. Soreness, pain, stiffness, swelling just seem to melt away and vanish.

The treatment first introduced by Mr. Delano is so good that its owner wants everybody that suffers from rheumatism or who has a friend so afflicted, to get a free 75c package from him to prove just what it will do in every case before a penny is spent. Mr. Delano says: "To prove that the Delano treatment will positively overcome rheumatism, no matter how severe, stubborn or long standing the case, and even after all other treatments have failed, I will, if you have never previously used the treatment, send you a full size 75c package free if you will just cut out this notice and send it with your name and address with 10c to help pay postage and distribution expenses to me personally."

SNOW MUST BE CLEARED AWAY

City Council Takes Action Against Delinquent Household Who
Let Snow Accumulate

CITY WILL DO THE JOB NOW

Under Direction of City Engineer and Charge Costs as Taxes
Against Property

The Brainerd city council, out of patience with householders who neglect to keep their walks clean from snow, has ordered the city engineer, R. T. Campbell, to hire a crew and proceed to clean up and charge the expense to the abutting property. Brainerd has an ordinance on shoveling snow, but its enforcement has generally been lax and there are people in the city so derelict in duty that they have never shoveled their walks. A few "cleanups" charged against their city taxes will put the pep into them sufficient to buy a snow shovel and to wield it when needed.

Water and Light Board

The council approved the water and light board proposition to buy 1800 Badger bronze water meters at a total cost of $21,240, being at the rate of $11.80 each. The contract is for a six months' period, 300 per month are to be delivered, with a thirty day privilege of cancelling the option. The city is to be protected against an increase in cost and to benefit in any reduction of quotation.

The leasing of the Johnson land near his cabbage tract was brought up by Thomas Beare who wished a two years' lease at $5 per acre. It was referred to the water and light board with power to act.

City witnesses in waterworks construction condemnation cases were ordered paid $5 per day for court attendance.

The council recommended paying the Beare award in the condemnation case.

Coming Election

The council practically reappointed all election judges in the various wards to serve at the coming special election, Monday, Dec. 8.

On motion of Alderman Andrew Anderson and Michael, carried, the city engineer is to see that fuel is supplied the polling places.

Renting Land

John A. Peterson was again awarded the lease of a five acre Highland tract at $5.

Mr. Canniff wanted to lease another city tract.

Licenses

Fred Cook was granted a bowling alley license subject to the approval of the mayor.

Art Olson was given a transfer of pool table and cigarette license from the basement of 12344 Southeast Oak street to main floor 1220 Oak street. He also asked for another pool table license. It was granted, subject to the approval of the mayor.

Bills, Etc.

Bills allowed and ordered paid included waterworks construction bills of $5,545.44, waterworks payroll $1,752.96, etc.

The poor committee reported several families in distress.

Fred Hass offered $2 for the light wagon box of the city and it was referred to the city property committee.

CHAMBER COMMERCE DINNER DEC. 3

"Bring Your Ideas and With Them
Determination to do Your Bit"

THE MENU TO BE DISCUSSED

Near Approach of Annual Election,
Problems of Organization to be Gone Over

The Chamber of Commerce dinner to be held at 6:15 Wednesday evening and the meeting to follow, promise to be well attended by members and their friends, as an interesting report of the recent conference of commercial club secretaries will be made by the secretary and plans for the coming year generally discussed. "Bring your ideas and with them a determination to do your bit," is the invitation extended by the committee, officials and all interested in a bigger and better Brainerd.

The Menu
The following menu will be served by the House and Social committee:

Roast Beef, Pan Gravy
Crow Wing, County Potatoes
Hot Buns
Cabbage Salad
Doughnuts
Cream Java

The meat and substantial will be cooked by Mrs. George R. West of the West Cafe, which insures the best possible in culinary skill. A special roast has been prepared by the Model Market for the occasion.

The near approach of the annual election and necessity for a definite plan of financing on a larger scale in order to keep up the present headquarters and carry out the present plan of a community center, affording a meeting place for a majority of those organizations engaged in constructive work in the city and county, add to the interest in this meeting.

Babcock in the Babcock Supply Co., and has formed the "Brainerd Office Supply Co." handling typewriters, typewriter supplies, stationery, school supplies, office supplies and equipment, etc., and will shortly remove from the Gardner block to 614 Laurel street.

Mr. Anderson was born and raised in Brainerd, was formerly a clerk in the Northern Pacific railway shops and also clerked some years for the former firm of Brodenberg & Erickson in Southeast Brainerd.

His friends are assured he will make a success in his business as it is energetic and most accommodating.

NATIONAL FARM BUREAU PLATFORM

Cooperation Between Farmers as a Class as Well as With Other Industries Coupled With

UNADULTERATED AMERICANISM

Upholds Right of Every Class to Organize for Material Benefit
When Labor and Products
Concerned

BY E. G. ROTH
(County Agricultural Agent)

The platform on which the National Farm Bureau was organized, embraces in short:

Co-operation between farmers as a class as well as with other industries, coupled with unadulterated Americanism, sums up principles underlying the American Farm Bureau federation, which organization was launched at Chicago recently. The following summary of resolutions briefly outlines the program for the coming year:

Collective Bargaining—Upholds right of every class to organize for material benefit, especially when the disposition of labor or products are concerned.

Labor Unrests and Strikes—Maintains that high prices are due, to a large extent, to curtailing of production through shorter working hours, inefficiency of labor and strikes.

Federal Land Banks—System supported and increase of maximum loan limit from $10,000 to $25,000 urged.

American Legion—Organization endorsed and a committee appointed to bring about closer relations.

Politics—Absolutely independent of any partisan organization.

Department of Agriculture—Will continue semi-official connections and will oppose any movement that tends to cripple or lessen efficiency of better farming work.

County Farm Bureaus—Recognized as unit on which federation is built and stands for strengthening such bureaus or similar organizations so capable men may be employed as managers.

Government Ownership—Opposed to principle and asks early return of railroads to owners, under such safeguards as will protect the public. Desires better transportation facilities for livestock and perishables.

Big Industries—Necessity of consolidation, recognized in some instances, but says that relief from extortion lies in cooperation, publicity for records and a graduated income tax, rather than in interference with economic laws on which such industries are founded.

Food Purveyors—Urges regulation such as will be just to producers and consumers as well as industries.

Economy in Public Affairs—Desires economy in public affairs through elimination of customs that add expense without results. Urges more adequate remuneration to public servants who are showing results.

Bureau of Markets—Demands vitalization of Bureau of Markets and Bureau of Crop Estimates. Bureau of Farm Management commended.

Farmers' Profits—Takes position that during past forty years farmers have made their money out of unretained fertility and unpaid labor by members of his family. Farm profits should be figured with this idea in mind.

Corporations—Urges charters for concerns doing interstate business and state restrictions on others.

Tenantry—Holds that land ownership is stewardship; that it does not carry a right to soil depletion. System of tenantry that results in reduction of soil fertility condemned.

Increased Production—Holds solution of high prices lies in increased production, but while pledging members to such a purpose, insists that labor do its share.

ADDS NEW EQUIPMENT

Willard Service Station Installs a Carbon Pile Discharge Set and Steam Opener

George J. Johnson of the Electric Garage, Willard Service Station, 905 Laurel street, is back on the job again, having been away for the past three months.

He has added new equipment to his station, including a pile discharge set. With this test set he will be able to determine the exact condition of the wood insulation and make this test in the presence of the customer.

He has also bought a Davison & Townsend steam opener. With this apparatus he can open up a battery in less than ten minutes. So when a customer brings a battery that is in poor condition, he can see the whole performance by waiting only twenty minutes. With the old method it took three or four days to determine the condition of a battery.

LABOR BACKING THE AMENDMENT

Trades & Labor Assembly Gives Approval to Adoption of New
Amendment to the Charter

VOTED AT CITY ELECTION DEC. 8

Individual Unions Also Express Endorsement—Other Meetings are Being Arranged For

The Trades & Labor Assembly of Brainerd at a recent meeting endorsed the proposed amendment to the charter providing a three mill levy for emergency purposes and protected by the safeguards drawn about the same. A number of individual unions have also expressed their approval of the amendment and urged its adoption at the special election to be held in the city Monday, December 8.

Mayor F. E. Little and Alderman Andrew G. Anderson of the finance committee have been instrumental in interesting the ranks of labor in the adoption of the amendment, whose passage is a necessity in Brainerd in order to provide needed revenue to carry the city through the reconstruction period.

Meetings have also been arranged for Southeast Brainerd and near the Northwest Paper Co. mill.

Not Hauling Wood

It is one of the ironies of fate that when wood is needed the most for fuel in Brainerd, when the weather is coldest, the farmers generally refuse to haul.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Expect Carranza Reply in a Week

To Latest American Note—Will be Another Refusal to Release Jenkins

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 2.—President Carranza of Mexico is expected to reply within a week to the last American note requesting immediate release of Wm. O. Jenkins, American consular agent imprisoned at Pueblo. The Mexican answer is not expected earlier than at the end of the week. Impressions here seemed to be that it will be another refusal. This would mean that negotiations for Jenkins' freedom would continue.

Notified Indicted Persons to Appear

(By United Press)
Grand Rapids, Mich., Dec. 2.—The stage was set for arraignment of a large number of the 134 persons indicted with Senator Newberry for conspiracy in connection with the election campaign last year. Scores of men throughout Michigan have been notified by United States Marshal Connor that bench warrants have been issued against them. The action practically puts those indicted by them at home to appear here for arrest. The marshal announced that any who did not appear would be arrested in their home city.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Senator Truman Newberry, in a statement today, urged the senate to investigate the circumstances surrounding his election in Michigan last year, and the charge of bribery and conspiracy made in federal indictments. Republican leaders here conferred and agreed to push the investigation of the Newberry case, as provided in the pending resolution.

DEACONS HAD LAST LAUGH

Good Story of How Boston Merchant Furnished New Haven Church With Baptismal Service.

In one of the older churches of New Haven there is a very quaint and beautiful baptismal service set of silver and no less quaint is the tale of how the old church came by the same.

It was during the year that Yorktown fell that the trustees of the church decided that the frame building must have repairs and sent to Boston for six kegs of nails. In course of time the kegs arrived on one of the huge and slow-moving freight wagons of the day and were duly delivered to the carpenters.

Nails in those days were scarce and expensive, each one being the handwork of a blacksmith, and, as a consequence of the methods followed in their manufacture, the smiths usually turning out 100 or so on days when they had nothing else in particular to engage their attention, they were apt to be very irregular in size and degree of perfection. The delight of the chief carpenter was, therefore, great when, knocking in the head of one keg, he found the nails of remarkably uniform size and indicating the best workmanship and material.

"We were in luck, deacon," he remarked to one of the trustees who had been present to receipt for the six kegs, "for these be Spanish nails, made at Toledo. Belike they were taken from some Spanish ship by a sea rover." He began to beat in the head of another keg and uttered an exclamation of astonishment.

"These be'n't nails, deacon!" he gasped, his eyes staring.

They were not. The keg was full to the brim of Spanish silver dollars.

"So I see, Master Thomas," the deacon remarked quietly. "Suppose you head up that keg again, and I will call a meeting of the trustees to discuss this matter. We must write to the merchant of Boston concerning it."

The meeting of the trustees was duly held that very day, and long and earnest were the arguments that took place. What was the proper course for them to follow? Should they simply write the Boston merchant that one of the kegs had been found to be full of silver dollars? The church was poor and the deacons were Connecticut Yankees to the bone. It was most obvious that the Boston merchant had obtained the keg in some unusual manner and it was a logical assumption that he had paid for it on a nail-value basis, as he had sold it.

Then uprose one who might have done mighty things in finance had he lived a century and a half later.

"Let us write," he said, "to this merchant of Boston to simply the facts that there was an error in shipment." And so they did.

In time came the merchant's reply. He had bought the kegs from a privateer; that they were sold as bought and "that no mistakes could be rectified."

And there is no doubt that the deacons chuckled somewhat dryly as they ordered the silver dollars of Spain melted down and cast into that service which can today be pointed out to the youth of New Haven as an example of—of, well, something.

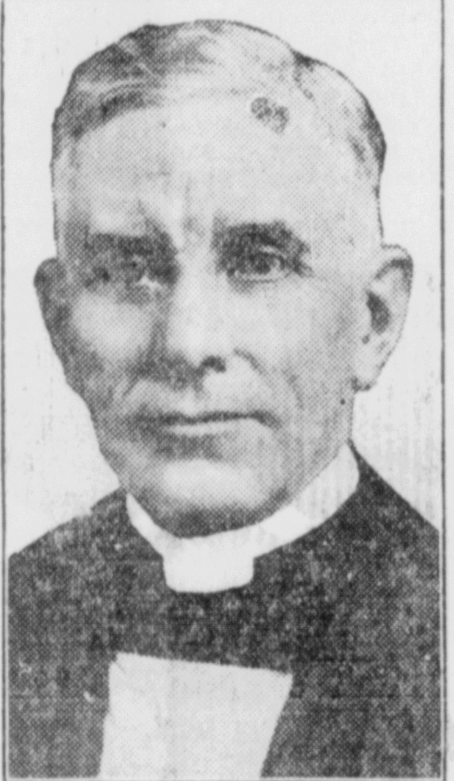

When The Day Is Over

When the household cares and the worries of everyday life have dragged you down, made you unhappy, and there is nothing in life but headache, backache and worry, turn to the right prescription, one gotten up by Dr. Pierce fifty years ago. Everything growing out of the ground seems intended for some use in establishing natural conditions. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases. He learned it all through treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakness, bearing-down pains, irregularities, pelvic inflammations, and for the many disorders common to women in all ages of life. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is made of lady's slipper root, black cohosh root, unicorn root, blue cohosh root and Oregon grape root. Dr. Pierce knew, when he first made this standard medicine, that whiskey and morphine are injurious, and so he has always kept them out of his remedies. Women who take this standard remedy know that in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it, in liquid or tablet form.

CHURCH STRATEGIST URGES UNITED DRIVE

Rt. Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd, D. D.

Bishop Arthur Selden Lloyd, president of the Episcopal Board of Missions, heads one of the three general organizations of the Episcopal church most interested in its nation-wide campaign. Bishop Lloyd was chairman of the organization which successfully presented to the Episcopal convention the idea of a nation-wide campaign to expand all its activities—missions, religious education and social service.

As head of the Board of Missions, Bishop Lloyd advocated the strategy of a general advance in the whole mission field, at home and abroad, rather than a series of separate sorties on the various fronts. To carry the ideals of Americanism and Christianity to the greatest numbers at the same time the church's nation-wide campaign was launched to obtain the men, women and money for the work.

Bishop Lloyd was born in Mount Ida, Va., in 1857. He was consecrated a bishop in 1909. In 1910 he was elected president of the Episcopal Board of Missions, heading one of the most important, if not the most important, general body of the Episcopal church.

PROMINENT MEN LEAD EPISCOPAL DRIVE

Men of affairs, whose names are known throughout the United States as synonymous with success in business and professional activities and whose leadership has brought success in many of the widest activities of the war period, have accepted appointment to the commission directing the nation-wide campaign of the Episcopal church, now in progress.

The commission was appointed at the last general convention of the Episcopal church, held in Detroit. It is composed of five laymen, five bishops and five presbyters. The laymen are: Henry P. Davison, chairman of the American Red Cross; Arthur Woods, formerly police commissioner of New York, and later in the federal employment service for returned soldiers and sailors; George Wharton Pepper of Philadelphia, a leader of the American bar; Burton Mansfield of New Haven, Conn., and Oliver J. Sands of Richmond, Va.

The bishops on the commission are:

Wallpapers Painted by Hand.

The revived interest of American house decorators in the old-time wall-papers has resulted in a finding of some excellent specimens, put away 100 years or more ago in some attic. Eighteen rolls of paper were recently discovered in an old New England house that tell the story of Pizarro's visit to Peru and illustrate also the habit of the old-time wallpaper makers in going far and wide in history and geography for their subjects, says the Christian Science Monitor. These old wallpapers were often painted by hand or made by the old art of hand-block printing, although nowadays they are reproduced, literally or otherwise, by printing from wooden blocks. The Pizarro paper was probably brought to America as long ago as 1735.
